

Classifier builders

- Supervised establishes a training set via user interaction.
- Unsupervised generates a set of classifiers without user interaction. The result may be chosen later, and used as filter masks.